

MONDAY, 30th October | Faculty, Room | 322 (Karl-Bender-Saal)

10.00 am – 3.30 pm (with lunch break): Dr. Anna Kirchhefer-Lauber / Prof. Dr. Bettina Heiderhoff, University of Münster
Welcome and introduction, workshops

4.00 pm: Dr. Anna Kirchhefer-Lauber
Autonomous Agents in Private Law

TUESDAY, 31st October | Faculty, Room | 322 (Karl-Bender-Saal)

9.45 am: Prof. Dr. Sebastian Lohsse, University of Münster
Consent and Mistake from Rome to Brussels

11.45 am: Prof. Dr. Karsten Thorn, Bucerius Law School, Hamburg
Supply chain responsibility from a comparative and economic perspective

Around 1.15 pm: Lunch break

4.30 pm: Dr. Konstantin Chatziathanasiou, University of Münster
What do we know about ‘hungry judges’?

6.00 pm: Dr. Cara Warmuth, CMS Hasche Sigle; Volker Kallhoff, LL.M., MBA, Hendricks GmbH
Management Liability: Crucial Legal, Insurance and Psychological Points from a Lawyer’s Perspective

7.30 pm: Reception in the restaurant LUX on invitation by

WEDNESDAY, 1st November | “Hamburg Day” Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law

8.00 am: Train to Hamburg Dammtor from Münster Hauptbahnhof

10.45 am: Claudia Holland, Head of the Library of the Max Planck Institute
The MPI and its Library

11.30 am: Short Coffee break

11.45 am: Michael Cremer, Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law
Purchasing a Passport: Business as Usual for PIL or a Violation of EU Law?

1.15 pm: Lunch break

2.15 pm: Dr. Sophie Burchardi, Bucerius Law School, Hamburg
AI systems and the question of civil liability – A challenge for European Private Law?

3.30 pm: Short Coffee break

4.00 pm: Prof. Dr. Ralf Michaels, Director at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law
Legal transplants as a technology transfer (topic tbc)

From around 5 pm – sightseeing and dinner in Hamburg

8.45 pm: Train back to Münster from Hamburg Hbf

THURSDAY, 2nd November | Faculty, Room | 322 (Karl-Bender-Saal)

9.30 am: Prof. Dr. Alexander Scheuch, University of Bonn
Current Points of Conflict Between EU Law and the Rules and Regulations of Sports Associations

11.45 pm: Prof. Dr. James Fowkes, University of Münster
How are all Common law countries different to all Civil law countries? A global enquiry

1.15 pm: Lunch break

Room 001, Kavaliershäuschen, Schlossplatz 6

18.00 pm: Rebecca Meier, University of Münster
Owning My (Academic) Career – Keys to Self-Management and Self-Leadership

FRIDAY, 3rd November | Faculty, Room | 322 (Karl-Bender-Saal)

9.15 am: Prof. Dr. Elsemieke Daalder, University of Münster
From Rome to Luxembourg: historical and comparative perspectives on the preliminary reference procedure

10.45 am: Ralf Kanitz, Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Climate Action
EU Case Law in Governmental Practice and ECJ Case Study

(After the session at around 2.15 pm: Lunch break with pizza)

4.00 pm: Final discussion, Feedback and Farewell

End of session around 4.30 pm.

Partners:

PROGRAMME IN EUROPEAN PRIVATE LAW FOR POSTGRADUATES

30th October – 3rd November 2023
Münster

PEPP is kindly supported by:

